XXVIX Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear brothers and sisters, when they first followed Jesus, the disciples were still very vague about His mission, as well as their calling. They dreamed of a life of wealth and power. They were sure that Jesus would create an opportunity for them to realize that unseasonable dream. In fact, sitting on the left or right side of the Lord was not only the desire of the two brothers James and John, but also the common desire of all the other disciples. It was just that the others disciples did not dare to openly admit it. But they were wrong. Wealth and worldly power are not the path chosen by God to save the world. Erasing the sins of mankind, converting this world to bring it back to the Father, showing everyone a part of the Father's love. It is certainly not a smooth and easy path. To fulfill the mission entrusted to him, Jesus chose the path of suffering and sacrifice of a servant. He accepted the bitter cup and was purified in death.

St. Joseph Medical Center
 Founded by three Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet in 1874, and the first hospital
 west of the Mississippi River.

St. Joseph Medical Center is celebrating its sesqui-centennial. Numerous health care advances, relocations and normal staff attrition have occurred over the years, but one thing has never changed: St. Joseph remains a Catholic hospital. Read more about it at catholickey.org.

Last weekend you heard an audio appeal in support of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Please take time this week to consider how your support of the programs and ministries can transform lives and build our faith through your sacrificial gifts. God has given each of us gifts beyond measure, including life, redemption, and faith, along with many material blessings. I invite you to share these gifts which make possible the vital ministries of our local Church, ministries that sustain the life and health of our parishes and schools.

Your gift makes a difference and has an immediate impact on Holy Rosary and on the work of the Church.

Thank you for your generosity.

Chúa Nhật XXVIX Thường Niên B

Anh chị em thân mến, khi mới đi theo Chúa Giêsu, các môn đệ còn rất mơ hồ về sứ mạng của Ngài, cũng như về ơn gọi của mình. Các ông mơ ước một cuộc sống giàu sang và quyền thế. Các ông tin chắc Chúa Giêsu sẽ tạo cho các ông cơ hội thực hiện giấc mơ trái mùa ấy. Thực ra ngòi bên tả hay bên hữu Chúa không phải chỉ là ước muốn riêng của hai anh em Giacôbê và Gi-oan, mà còn là điều thèm khát chung của tất cả các môn đệ khác. Chỉ có điều là những người này đã không dám công khai thú nhận mà thôi.

Nhưng họ đã lầm. Giàu sang và thế lực trần gian không phải là con đường được Thiên Chúa chọn để cứu thế. Xoá bỏ tội lỗi của loài người, hoán cải thế giới này để đưa về với Chúa Cha, chỉ cho mọi người thấy được phần nào lòng yêu thương của Chúa Cha. Chắc chắn không phải là con đường bằng phẳng êm ái. Để hoàn thành sứ mạng được trao phó, Chúa Giêsu đã chọn con đường đau khổ và hiến tế của Người tội tở.

Ngài đã nhận lấy chén đắng và chịu thanh tẩy trong sự chết.
